THE BEACON

January 2024 Newsletter

As a year comes to a close, it's vital that we take time to both reflect on what God has done and allow Him to prepare us for what's to come. A new year marks a fresh opportunity to center our lives around the goodness of God. I pray that as you begin looking toward what is to come you will make space to gain God's perspective, ground your hopes and pursuits on His grace, and celebrate all that God has done and is doing.

We have so much to be thankful for this past year and even more to be thankful for in the coming year. From people not only joining the church, but also accepting Christ as their Savior. We have seen growth of children in our kids' programming with a successful VBS and Christmas play, we enjoyed a fun filled celebration of 130 years in the community, and we celebrated hosting the community Christmas program yet again. However, I truly believe the best is yet to come.

For they disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Hebrews 12:10-11

This new year should not only be a year of glorifying God with all we do, but also a year of growth in Him.

This year, every time we face trials of many kinds, we need to rejoice and stay focused on the outcome, not the pain of the process. We know that in all things, God works for the good of those who love Him. So as we face moments of God's discipline this year, focus on the strength you will have when you persevere.

CAROLING AND CHILI COOKOFF

Harvest Church members joined together to sing Christmas carols at local nursing homes as well as residential homes on December 10th.

We have a new Harvest Church Chili Cookoff Champion! Congratulations, Erin Harris! Erin beat the reigning champ, Abram Harris, with her white chicken chili. It was a hard decision with so many delicious choices.

HARVEST CHURCH PRESENTS: THE JOURNEY... AS TOLD BY KIDS

Thank you to all the adults and children who participated in the Christmas program and to those who came to watch! A special thank you to our Children's Ministry Director, Erin, for all the time and effort put towards making this program so great!
