The leaves are falling and the seasons are changing! Change; what a word.

Human nature does not like change. We like stability. Change is scary. Change is unknown. It's a lot easier to stay with the status quo, to stay with what we know. That's true for everyone, of all ages. The problem, of course, is that our world is constantly changing. I don't know if there's a good way to measure how fast the world is changing, but it sure feels like it's changing faster than ever before, doesn't it? We humans like consistency. Just look at the fact that oldies radio exists. No matter what generation you grew up in, you probably still listen to the music you grew up with.

As Christians, we worship an eternal God, a God who is outside of time.

Hebrews 13:8 "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

How amazing!!! That's something we can anchor our lives to. No matter what happens, no matter what changes in the world or in your life, God is there for you and God is still faithful.

It's comforting to know that in the midst of a changing world and changing culture, the mission of the church does not change.

A blast from the past!

Above was the first newsletter I typed for Harvest Church. Man, has it been a year. Celebrating the past year and reflecting on what has happened and what is to come is still exciting because, Hebrews 13:8!

Let us join in arms as the people of God and praise the Son who is the same yesterday and today and forever! Let us be a people on a Mission!
