THE BEACON

November 2024 Newsletter

Taste and see that the Lord is good. How happy is the man who takes refuge in Him!? This past month has been an incredible experience for Teresa and I here at Harvest Church as we witness His movement and feel His presence in profound ways. My excitement to advance the kingdom of heaven is palpable as it begins. I find myself struggling to express the honor and privilege it is for me to shepherd and pastor. I can't do it alone; I need you guys. I have an unwavering belief that God is going to move mountains for our church, communities, and personal lives.

Lately, my quiet time has been centered around Hebrews 11:1, and I keep reflecting on this powerful passage. It emphasizes that faith is not a concept that gets us through hard times; it has real substance and serves as a firm foundation upon which hope stands. This understanding reassures me that our faith provides a sense of certainty and strength regarding the future we anticipate for Harvest Church.

Moreover, the idea of faith as evidence resonates deeply with me. It acts as proof, affirming the existence of spiritual realities that may not yet be visible. Just as evidence presented in a courtroom substantiates a case, our faith supports our beliefs about what God has in store for us and what is to come. It's exciting to think about how this faith can strengthen our community and guide us as we step forward in pushing out the darkness with the light of the gospel in Jesus Christ our life.

For His Kingdom,
Pastor Josh
