February has passed, and we are already in March. As we look back on the past month, I am grateful for all that God is doing in our community. Harvest Church continues to move forward, finding new ways to reach more people and share Christ's love. One of our newest events is Secret Church. It was a joy to gather on a Friday night, spend meaningful time with God as a church family, and learn about what He is doing in North Korea. My heart is full as I reflect on how our church comes together to support one another and to pray for those in need around the world.

That is not the only exciting thing happening. If you missed the Night of Worship, you have probably already heard about it. Our Praise and Worship Team led us in a night where the Holy Spirit was powerfully present as we lifted our voices together. The sense of unity and encouragement in the room was unmistakable, and it was a blessing to witness how God worked through our community. I am so thankful for each person who participated, whether on stage or in the congregation.

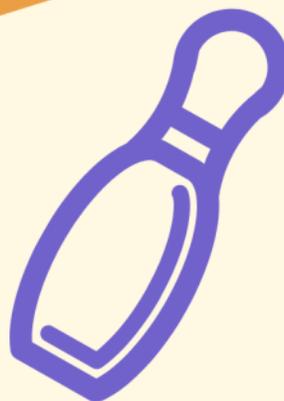

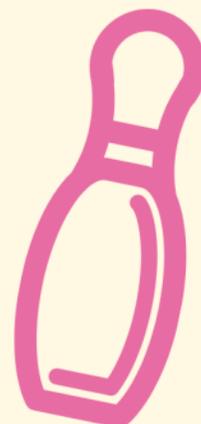

There is so much more ahead for us, and seeing our church come together for God truly moves my heart. It is a privilege to journey with each of you as we grow in faith, support one another, and deepen our walk with Christ. Easter is just around the corner, and as we prepare to celebrate, let us remember the hope we have in our wonderful Savior who defeated the grave. May we continue to encourage each other and reach out with compassion to those around us.

For the Kingdom,
Pastor Josh
